New Delhi, the 20th November 1969

THE CENTRAL SECRETARIAT STENOGRAPHERS SERVICE (COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION) REGULATIONS, 1969

G.S.R. 2678.—In pursuance of sub-para (2) of para 2 of the Fifth Schedule to the Central Secretariat Stenographers Service Rules, 1969, the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs hereby makes the following regulations, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These regulations may be called the Central Secretariat Stenographers Service (Competitive Examination) Regulations, 1969.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Definitions.—In these regulations, unless the context otherwise, requires,

- (a) "available vacancies" means the additions to the Select List of Grade II of the Central Secretariat Stenographers Service which are decided to be made on the results of an examination;
- (b) "examination" means a competitive examination held by the Commission for making additions to the Select List of Grade II of the Service and for recruitment to posts of Stenographers in such Services, Departments or Offices, as may be notified from time to time by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs;
- (c) "selection" means inclusion in the Select List for Grade II of the Central Secretariat Stenographers Service; and
- (d) "Scheduled Castes" and "Scheduled Tribes" shall have the same meanings as are assigned to them by clauses (24) and (25) respectively of article 366 of the Constitution of India;
- (e) Words and expressions used in these regulations and not defined but defined in the Central Secretariat Stenographers Service Rules, 1969 shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the said rules.

3. Holding of the examination.—(1) The examination shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner notified by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time.

(2) The dates on which and the places at which the examination shall be held shall be fixed by the Commission.

4. Conditions of eligibility.—In order to be eligible to appear at the examination, a candidate must satisfy the following conditions, namely:—

(i) Nationality:—

(a) He must be a citizen of India, or

(b) He must belong to such categories of persons as may, from time to time, be notified in this behalf by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs.

(ii) Age:—

He must have attained the age of 18 years, and must not have attained the age of 24 years on the first day of January of the year in which the examination is held:

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed in respect of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and such other categories of persons as may be notified in this behalf by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs, from time to time, to the extent and subject to the conditions notified in respect of each of them.

(iii) Educational Qualification:—

He must have passed the Matriculation examination of a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India, or an examination held by a State Education Board at the end of Secondary School Course for the award of a School Leaving, Secondary School or High School Certificate, or otherwise possess any qualification which has been recognised by the Government for the purposes of admission to the examination:

Provided that in exceptional cases, a candidate who, though not possessing any of the qualifications specified in this clause, may be treated by the Commission as educationally qualified if he possesses qualifications the standard of which in the opinion of the Commission justifies his admission to the examination:

Provided further that a candidate who has appeared at an examination the passing of which would render him eligible to appear at this examination, but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. A candidate who intends to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply, provided the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of this examination. Such candidate will be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible, but the admission would be deemed to be provisional and subject to cancellation if he does not produce proof of having passed the examination as soon as possible, and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of this examination.

(iv) Attempts at the examination:—

Unless covered by any of the exceptions that may, from time to time, be notified by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs, in this behalf, he should not already have competed more than once at the examinations held after the 1st January, 1962.

NOTE 1.—A candidate shall be deemed to have competed at the examination once for all the Services or posts ordinarily covered by the examination if he completes for any one or more of the Services or posts.

NOTE 2.—A candidate shall be deemed to have competed at the examination if he actually appears in any one or more subjects or papers.

(v) Fee:—

Subject to such exemptions or concessions, as may be notified from time to time in this behalf by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs, he shall pay the fee specified by the Commission.

5. Canvassing of candidature.—Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may be held by the Commission to disqualify him for admission to the examination.

6. Decision as to eligibility.—The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final and no candidate to whom a certificate of admission has not been issued by the Commission shall be admitted to the examination.

7. Results.—(1) The names of the candidates who are considered by the Commission to be suitable for selection on the results of the examination shall be arranged in the order of merit and subject to the provisions of sub-regulation (5) of regulation 8, they shall be recommended for selection in that order up to the number of available vacancies.

(2) The form and manner of communication of the results of the examination to individual candidates shall be decided by the Commission in their discretion; and the Commission shall not enter into any correspondence with the individual candidates regarding the results.

8. Appointments.—(1) Success at the examination shall confer no right to selection, unless the Central Government is satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for selection.

(2) No candidate shall be selected unless he is, after such medical examination as the Central Government may prescribe, found to be free from any mental or physical defect which is likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the Service.

(3) No person who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, and no woman whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for selection on the results of the examination:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so doing, exempt any person from the operation of this sub-regulation.

(4) Save as provided in sub-regulation (5) of this regulation, selection on the results of any examination shall be made to the extent of the available vacancies.

in the order of merit of the candidates recommended by the Commission for selection, subject to reservations for the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in accordance with the orders issued by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs in this behalf from time to time.

(5) Candidates belonging to any of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes who are considered by the Commission to be suitable for selection on the results of the examination with due regard to the maintenance of the efficiency of administration shall be eligible to be selected for the vacancies reserved for them irrespective of their ranks in the order of merit at the examination.

9. Penalty for impersonation or other misconduct.—A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated documents or documents which have been tampered with or of making statements which are incorrect or false or of suppressing material information or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination, or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or of misbehaviour in the examination hall, may, in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution,—

(a) be debarred permanently or for a specified period—

(i) by the Commission, from admission to any examination or from appearance at any interview held by the Commission for selection of candidates; and

(ii) by the Central Government from employment under them;

(b) be liable to disciplinary action under the appropriate rules, if he is already in service under Government.
